

Community forms campaign group in bid to save chalets

■ A BUMPER programme of events taking place this year in Weymouth and Portland has been announced. See page 5 for full story

ANGRY Weymouth chalet owners and residents have formed a campaign group in their bid to prevent beach buildings and leisure facilities at Greenhill being sold off by the council.

The cash strapped authority plans to offload the chalets and leisure facilities on 125-year leases, a move it claims offers the best hope for the future and which avoids the council facing a huge maintenance bill.

But the Greenhill community is up in arms at the proposals which are seeing council officers seek formal tenders on a 125-year lease for Greenhill Gardens chalets, Esplanade chalets, the Greenhill Play Gardens and chalets, Greenhill public toilets,

by Harry Walton

the putting green and associated facilities.

Nearly 170 people packed in to the Methodist Church hall in Melcombe Avenue to form the Communities Of Greenhill (COG) group.

The council has said that if officers can't get a tender then chalet owners will be offered a short term licence for summer 2014 only while remarketing is carried out, but COG plans action now rather than waiting for any tender.

The church hall meeting discussed council proposals to privatise sections of Greenhill Gardens and Greenhill Play Gardens and voted overwhelming to form COG, a new group focused solely on the proposed privatisation which will work alongside existing community groups within the area.

Chalet Users Community Group chairman Sue Bray said: "I was amazed and delighted with both the turnout for the meeting and the strength of feeling displayed by the local community."

MANY, in and around the Dorchester area, will know of, or have met Margaret Morrissey, OBE.

Editor of the parish magazine, active with the church, a former lay schools inspector and chair of the Poundbury Residents Association, Mrs Morrissey is also often quoted in the national press and regional and national broadcasters for her views on education and parenting.

After years as chair and then spokesperson for National Confederation of Parent Teachers Association she founded her own organisation, Parents Outloud, when she 'retired' several years ago.

And apart from all this Mrs Morrissey is more than active with her seven grandchildren, five of which live locally, and can often be seen being ferried around in a car which would otherwise be far too big for her and retired hotelier and publican, husband Patrick.

■ DO you have a problem saying 'no'?

I agreed to do this interview, so yes! It is one of my problems – I often see something which needs sorting out and end up getting involved.

■ WHEN did you first come to Dorset?

About 1980 when Patrick took over the Worgret Manor Hotel at Wareham. We had met in Weybridge where he was a hotel manager, but he had always wanted to branch out on his own. We later moved to Poole and then came to Dorchester in 1990 at the Junction Hotel. I hated Dorset at first, after living in London, but I soon grew to love it.

■ AND what did you do before starting a family?

I trained as a nurse, did some agency work and also worked for Securicor for while. I was at Queen Charlotte Hospital working on the unit where they pioneered changing a baby's blood, which was very exciting and very cutting edge at the time. Our first child was born at Barts which technically makes her a cockney and gives her the right to drive sheep over Westminster Bridge, although she hasn't tried it yet.

■ HOW did you get involved in educational matters?

The head at the nursery heard me complaining about a zebra crossing and told me I was just the person she needed. Before I knew it I was a school governor and on the PTA...that was the start of it and I never looked back from there. Her name was Mrs Grubb, I won't forget her, my husband says she has a lot to answer for. I used to go along to the Inner London Education Authority and speak up on a number of issues.

■ AND how did your involvement continue in Dorset?

At the Worgret Manor some of the local persuaded me to stand for the town council in Wareham. Later David Jacob's came to Swanage to broadcast "Any Questions" from the Mowlem Theatre. I put in a question about the teachers strike affecting my daughter's education and he made a quip that with a mother like me, she ought to do just fine. The next day the phone didn't stop ringing and myself and a few others called a meeting at the Purbeck School and started the All Dorset Parents Action Group. We used to hold breakfast meetings and ran a number of campaigns which often led to us going to London to lobby MPs and the Minister. Eventually we became the Dorset group of the National Confederation of Parent Teachers Association and I became involved nationally with the organisation as chair and later as spokesperson.

■ AND did you get to know many of the key players nationally?

Yes, but it's a sad indictment that in 30 years or so of meeting with secretaries of state for education there was only one, John MacGregor, who seemed to genuinely care about children, and he only lasted a few months in the post. David Blunkett was very nice and used to phone me quite often until he became a Minister and then all I would get in response were letters addressed to Mrs Morrissey. John Patten even described me as a 'Neanderthal'. Luckily I bit my lip and thought about my response when I was asked by the press what I thought about his comments on me. I also got to know all of the national paper journalists who write about education and many from the TV and radio, some of which still phone me today for my comments.

■ I GUESS you were quite academic at school?

Far from it, but I used to run church services, was the sports captain and was busy with lots of other things. Somehow I think everyone, including me, forgot about my education. There used to be a time when bits of paper weren't that important but if I had my time again I might have made more effort. It certainly true now that you won't even get a job interview for most things without the paper to prove you can pass an exam.

■ HAS the church always played an important part in your life?

Yes, I started going to church as a child. It would be Sunday School in the morning and church in the evening. I'm not even really sure if I'm a believer, but I do believe in insurance.

■ AND apart from the church and Patrick what else is there that fills your time now you are retired?

The parish magazine takes quite a lot of time, there's ten editions a year and the deadlines come around remarkably quickly. I do try and be organised and put items aside as I go along, but the biggest thing in my life is the grandchildren, all seven of them varying in age from four to sixteen. At the weekend I had all five of them and was exhausted when they went home, but I just love it.

Driver fails to stop after hitting girl

A TEENAGE girl has been injured in Weymouth by a car driver who failed to stop.

Police say the incident happened at around 1.10pm on January 23rd along Buxton Road near to the railway bridge.

Officers added that a local 17-year-old girl was walking towards the Foords Corner roundabout on the pavement on the southern side of the carriageway.

As she came level with the safety railings she took a small step in to the road to allow a mobility scooter to pass by but, while she was stood in this position, she was struck by a small silver Peugeot hatchback car which did not stop. No arrests have been made.

The teenager sustained minor injuries that required treatment at the Weymouth Minor Injuries Unit.

PC Graham Pinney, of Weymouth police, said: "The collision damaged the nearside wing mirror of the offending vehicle which was left hanging off, attached only by cables. I urge the driver to come forward to and speak to the police to help us ascertain exactly what happened.

"I am appealing for witnesses and anyone with information to come forward.

"In particular I would like to speak to the rider of the mobility scooter who may have witnessed the incident and can help with the investigation. All calls will be treated in confidence."

Witnesses and anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 101 quoting incident number 23:215 or call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Soggy start to 2014

TORRENTIAL downpours have given Weymouth its wettest January since records began way back in 1886.

Weymouth weatherman Bob Poots said that so many downpours had soaked the town recently that figures for December and January had combined to batter Weymouth with half a year's rainfall in just two months.

He added that during this time there was a period of 39 days when just four were completely dry.

Rainfall for 2014 broke a January record which had stood since 1948 when 185.4mm fell, this year's new record being 186mm or nearly two and a half times the usual rainfall for January.

Despite the very wet month, January sunshine was up 11 percent above average at 74.5 hours, the sun failing to appear on nine days.

There was no air frost, thunder, lightning, fog or snow during January, but ground frost was recorded on seven days while hail was recorded on three days.

The strongest gust of wind was recorded at 46mph on New Year's Day and all temperatures were above the January average.

The average maximum was up 1.8 degrees centigrade at 10.4C, minimum was up 1.7C at 5.7C, mean was up 1.8C at 8.7C and the average sea temperature was up 1.5C at 9.4C.

Portland Rotary Club are looking for younger members to sign up

PORTLAND Rotary Club is appealing for new and particularly younger members to come forward to help with tasks because demands on their support are increasing.

Spokesman Keith Barnard-Jones said: "If you are in a business or profession in the Weymouth or Portland area, if you want to help others less fortunate than ourselves and if you are interested in finding out more about Rotary then give me a call on 01305-821030.

"We are not a secret society. Membership is by invitation as in a golf or sailing club but, unless we know that you are interested, we cannot tell you more about ourselves."

He added that one of the questions members were most often asked was how did Rotary start?

Mr Barnard-Jones said: "In 1905

four lonely businessmen in Chicago decided to meet together weekly for fun and friendship and to help each other - the original networking.

"They rotated their meeting place around each person's place of work, hence the name - Rotary - or more properly Rotary International, as the movement has spread all over the globe during the last 100 plus years.

"With a motto of 'Service Above Self', we are now an organisation of almost one and a quarter million business and professional men and women worldwide whose aim is to help those less fortunate than ourselves.

"There are only a handful of countries where Rotary does not exist - we are even in Russia, China and Antarctica!

"I am also asked how the top table sales originated. Simple. In the old days we would make donations, large or small depending on our funds, to local organisations, and that was it.

"We did not always have a lot of direct contact with the islanders in this way, so we decided to hire the Community 2000 Hall each month to enable these groups to hold their own sales and thus raise even more money for their organisations.

"Not only does it help them, but it also gives us a chance to meet far more of the local residents. We are after all a community based - organisation. So watch out for the notices each month.

"The more you support these local community-based events, the better the organisers can help our local community."

For more information about the Rotary Club of Portland visit <http://www.rotary-ribi.org>.

Group bid to save chalets

"The setting up of the Communities Of Greenhill is just the first step in our defence of Greenhill's open spaces and our much loved community facilities.

"Both Greenhill Gardens and Greenhill Play Gardens were gifted to the council for the benefit of the public and not the benefit of commercial enterprise. The council simply act as trustee to 'The People's Park' as Greenhill was once dubbed and we as members of the public must hold them to account should they decide to exploit our 'jewel in the crown'."

She added that the council's approach to selling off chalets and leisure facilities on a 125-year lease showed that "it hasn't got a clue what the community of Greenhill wants".

She said: "There is a lot more to Greenhill than just chalets because the community comes here to enjoy a whole range of leisure facilities.

"We have now formed COG which we plan to use to spearhead all the interests of Greenhill.

"We hope to hold our first meeting in mid-February to discuss a way forward for Greenhill and we hope to talk about what needs doing and what options for Heritage Lottery funding are available to us to resolve problems with the two-tier chalets, particularly with maintenance."

Among those backing the campaign by chalet owners and residents is Alderman Andy Hutchings who said: "I have held a beach chalet licence for more than 15 years and I chose to stay in this borough to spend my money to enjoy the benefits of the Greenhill area.

"The council decision to put the beach chalets out to tender on a 125-year lease is an act of folly in selling off the family silver. The Greenhill area is the jewel in the crown for this borough.

"The council says that it will consult the public on its plans, but I doubt that this will be meaningful consultation. The decision has already been made.

"If the lease goes ahead rents will be vastly increased and local residents will be priced out meaning generations of local residents will no longer be able to enjoy the chalets that have given them so much enjoyment for so many years."

Plans for WWII evening to welcome French friends

A D-DAY anniversary evening is being planned at Weymouth Pavilion Ocean Room on June 7th as part of the welcome for a delegation from the resort's twin town of Louviers in France.

It will come the evening after The Queen and the Prince of Wales attend the 70th anniversary of the D-Day landings in Normandy.

The Ocean Room will be decorated specially and the Highcliff Charity Players will perform music and songs of the 1940s.

Weymouth and Portland Louviers Society president is Weymouth and Portland Mayor Councillor Ray Banham who recently chaired the society's annual meeting.

He said: "The twinning is excellent at creating good relationships and the friendship with Louviers has been successful for over 50 years.

"The link is of economic value to Weymouth and Portland as the Louviers members bring business to the town. The twinning is good for the borough, extending hands of friendship across the English Channel."

Chairman Cath Irving thanked the Mayor and Mayoress Councillor Pam Nixon for their support for the society and said how well they had represented the borough during the civic visit to Louviers in September.

Council proposes tax rise

At a cabinet meeting this week it was recommended that Dorset County Council consider an increase of 1.99 per cent for the council's part of next year's council tax.

The increase, the first in four years, will be discussed and decided upon at the full council meeting on February 13th.

This is a rise of 44p per week for a band D property, a total of £22.88 a year.

Councillor Robert Gould, Cabinet member for corporate resources, introduced the report: "Although we are still waiting for the Government's confirmation of the referendum limits, this increase should be below that value."

"I am confident that the basis for the budget is sound and that it will support the council for the substantial challenges that we face in the future.

"This is a modest increase to help us change the way we serve our residents."

The cabinet also recommended that the budget strategy is considered by the full council in February. This plan lays out the savings that need to be made in the next three financial years (£43.3million).

Councillor Spencer Flower, leader of the county council, said: "There are a lot of unknowns in the next few years. But we do know that we need to change the way we provide services to the residents of Dorset. By transforming rather than cutting services and with good financial management we will meet the challenges head on."

Complete survey and win food hamper

A HAMPER of Dorset food is on offer as a temptation to undertake a short online survey from the Communities Living Sustainably in Dorset group.

The survey is open until February 7th and can be found at www.cls-dorset.org.uk.

CLS aims to increase the awareness, understanding and action taken by local people to adapt to changes in climate and to live more sustainable lifestyles.

All those who take part in the survey will have the option to enter a free prize draw to win a hamper of local food provided by the Real Food Shop, a mobile shop providing fruit, vegetables, dairy, and meat products produced by a co-operative of small holders in West

Dorset, South Somerset and East Devon.

Emily Bullock, Greener Choices Co-ordinator for the CLS project said: "This survey is really important to us as it will help us to understand current attitudes and behaviour towards the environment."

"This will help shape our work, and provide a baseline against which to measure how much change we make. We are also delighted to support the Real Food Shop; with 25 per cent of all lorries on the road carrying food, sourcing food locally helps to cut greenhouse gas emissions as well as support the local economy."

The project in Dorset is supported by the Big Lottery Fund for a three year period from March 2013.

It aims to help people adapt to climate change and to live more sustainably. The project strives to act as a catalyst for action, building on the work already taking place in Bridport, Dorchester and their surrounding areas.

Challenge Weymouth will lead more than 1,500 athletes through this incredible multi endurance event which includes a July and August.

July and August is always a great time to try out a sport and join in the fun on Weymouth Beach and this year the Ecover Blue Mile will be back with an open-water swim, kayaking and stand-up paddle boarding.

This will be part of the Dorset Festival of Sports which will feature the Beach Sports Festival, the Battens Charity Beach Volleyball and the RAF Weymouth Beach Volleyball Classic, the country's leading two side men's and women's volleyball championship.

Throughout 2014 the borough's fabulous park and open spaces will host a range of activities including fetes, fairs and picnics organised by the parks' friends group and the borough council.

Weymouth Portland tourism spokesman Councillor Ian Bruce said: "The 2014 programme is full of top quality events. There are seasonal favourites and exciting new events making this programme bigger and better than ever. There is really something for everyone to enjoy and get involved with. This programme will again give a great economic benefit to the area.

"A special thanks to this year's event partners, Real World Security, Weymouth Swimming Pool (SLM), Weymouth Pavilion, Mud & Gears and Just Racing (Challenge Weymouth)."

Social night for sailability

PEOPLE are invited to a social pub night in Weymouth being held by Chesil Sailability.

The event will be held at the John Gregory pub in Southill on Tuesday, February 11th, at 7.30pm.

Chesil says it will be an opportunity for people to meet members of the group and find out more about it.

HAVING recently visited South West Coaches, I was met with a warm welcome at a privately owned, family run company. Upon entering reception I learnt that they run a number of excellent value holidays to a variety of different places, as well as many short breaks and day trips.

The business is owned by Mr and Mrs Alan Graham, who operate from three locations: Lufton Business Park in Yeovil, Southgate Road in Wincanton and Tradecroft Industrial Estate on the Isle of Portland.

In 1987 Mr & Mrs Graham went into business buying a third of a company called A. G. Hulbert and Son. A.G. Hulbert and Son operated from Victoria Road, Yeovil and successfully ran a fleet of around 14 minibuses which ranged from 8 seats to 24 seats. The vehicles were used to transport children and adults to various schools in and around Yeovil, they also specialised in PHAB transportation (Physically Handicapped Able Bodied). Mr Graham's passion for the bus industry was soon realised and he grew the company over a period of 13 years adding day excursions & holidays to his portfolio. The fleet also grew at which point an opportunity came his way...

In 2000 a local company called Wakes Services came on the market. This company was based in Wincanton which posed a different set of challenges. Knowing that the operation in Yeovil was becoming larger Mr Graham decided to merge A.G. Hulbert & Son with Wakes Services thus creating South West Coaches Ltd. The company was now providing minibus transport, school transport, public transport and private hire work alongside day excursions and holiday tours but this time on a much larger scale as the company was now in ownership of a fleet of large buses and coaches taking the total fleet size to in excess of 50 vehicles. The Victoria Road site was quickly sold and a yard on Lufton Business Park was purchased. Over the following years Mr & Mrs Graham became the sole owners of South West Coaches Ltd.

South West Coaches went from strength to strength and in 2007 Safeway Services came on the market and a purchase agreement was made. In the same year Yeovil Town saw a major boost to its infrastructure with four brand new Optare Solo buses, this was soon followed by a new Optare Versa for the 81 South Petherton service and an additional new vehicle to the No 1 Shepton Mallet service. The most recent purchase came in 2009 when they entered Dorset and purchased an operation on the Isle of Portland, Sureline was now part of the South West Coaches group.

They are currently one of the largest privately owned coach operators in the South West of England, employing over 120 members of staff, with a fleet of 98 vehicles. They continue to operate Bus Services throughout Somerset, Wiltshire and Dorset with more than 629,000 journeys every year. The School transport operation helps to get in excess of 2,500 students to and from School and College every day, and the day excursion programme offers more than 150 days out throughout the year, whilst the 2014 Tour programme has over 20 holidays & short breaks to choose from.

Style secrets for the mature woman

A WORKSHOP run by local businesses to help women over 55 look and feel their best proved to be a sell-out success.

More than 50 people attended the Style and Colour Night held at Highclere House care home in Weymouth which showcased style secrets and beauty tips for mature women.

The event was attended by the Mayor of Weymouth and Portland, Councillor Ray Banham who was keen to find out what colour suited him best.

He said: "Personally, I've always liked to wear light blue suits. I call them my 'showbiz suits' - I think they are quite well known in Weymouth.

"Highclere House is like a 5 star hotel. There isn't another care home like it in Weymouth. It really is the best. It is great to see so many people enjoying the facilities and treating themselves to some style advice and a pampering."

■ FROM the left are Mayoress Councillor Pam Nixon, Helen Holden, Mayor Councillor Ray Banham, Vicki Gray, Helen Walker and Deborah Holmes of Highclere House

Weymouth were on hand offering nail, hair and beauty treatments, assisted by beauty therapist students from Weymouth College.

Helen said: "The beauty industry is so buoyant at the moment with people looking for a quick 'pick-me-up' treatment to help lift their mood or a chance for some relaxation.

"Many of my clients are older women who just want a little time to enjoy some pampering and have a chat and Highclere House's spa is ideal for that.

"Tonight's sample sessions have been a real success and prove just that.

"I hope to work with the home and its spa facilities in the future and hopefully make it a permanent event for the residents and the public too."

Vicki Gray, Colour Consultant with House of Colour advised guests on how to wear colours that complement their skin tone and how to wear the right style for their body shape.

She said: "As women age and reach retirement they feel it is no longer important to look and feel their best, but in fact how they dress can affect their mood, mentality and attitude so it is so important for them to retain that sense of identity and learn to embrace what they have."

Highclere House Home Manager Helen Holden said: "It's been a fabulous evening and I think we have all learnt so much - style is for life not just for the young."

Marine charity backs dolphin campaign

THE company behind the Weymouth Sea Life Park has launched a new international marine conservation charity.

The Sea Life Marine Conservation Trust announced its arrival in the green arena by roundly condemning the latest massacre of dolphins in Taiji, Japan.

Head of Conservation Sarah Taylor appealed to zoos and aquaria who are fuelling the dolphin hunt with demand for captive animals to withdraw any association with the dolphin drive fishery.

She said: "Dolphins are herded into a cove and after some have been removed to go to captive facilities, the rest are cruelly butchered."

"Yearly quotas for these hunts run into thousands. They are a brutal reminder that we have a very long way to go in securing a safe and humane future for all whales and dolphins."

"We are proud to be working alongside global organisations such as the Whale and Dolphin Conservation group, to end the Taiji horror."

"This campaign very much reflects the new trust's objectives and is a good place for us to start."

The trust has also set a 2014 fundraising target of more than £250,000 with support already ear-marked for an anti-whaling campaign, sponsorship of a Marine Protected Area, turtle rescue and efforts to stem shark-finning and the use of seahorses in traditional Chinese medicines.

As well as a host of fundraising mechanics deployed by Sea Life centres, the proceeds from a day's trading across the whole global Sea Life estate will be donated by parent company Merlin.

Curator Fiona Smith said: "Staff here at Weymouth Sea Life and across the estate are dedicated to doing what they can to help the marine world and the launch of the trust is the perfect reward for that dedication."

The Weymouth attraction hosted its own successful conservation evening in support of several charities last summer and will be hosting special shark and turtle conservation events this year.

They also assisted in a local beach clean after severe storms where marine life including dolphins had been washed up covered in fishing nets.

Town encouraged to get behind fairtrade fortnight

THE Co-operative supermarket is encouraging people in Dorset to look ahead to Fairtrade Fortnight 2014 (which runs from February 24th to March 9th).

The Co-operative are providing members with a "Join In Fairtrade" toolkit to help them stage their own events to raise awareness of Fairtrade.

Groups or individuals can apply for a special Join In Fairtrade Fortnight toolkit, which contains everything they need to plan local Fairtrade activities. Packs include a voucher for buying Fairtrade products at Co-operative food stores, a film about Fairtrade, a quiz, an information booklet, a poster, and some stickers.

Members of The Co-operative are urged to stage any event to help raise awareness of the Fairtrade movement. These could include fashion shows, coffee mornings or wine tastings.

The consumer-owned retailer has been a strong supporter of the Fairtrade movement for many years, since becoming the first high street retailer to list Cafédirect in 1992.

Now, The Co-operative stocks the widest range of Fairtrade grocery products of any UK supermarket with 230 different lines, and is this year celebrating 10 years of Fairtrade wine.

Fay Bowden, Membership Officer for The Co-operative in the Dorset area said: "As the UK's largest mutual retailer, we have been at the forefront of developing Fairtrade products and promoting the principles of Fairtrade."

"Our sales figures show how important Fairtrade is to our customers and, thanks to their continued support, we can ensure a better deal for growers in developing countries whose families can also look forward to a better future."

"As well as staging our own Fairtrade wine tasting events and hosting a Fairtrade producer during Fairtrade Fortnight, we are particularly pleased to be able to offer community groups throughout the region this Join In Fairtrade toolkit to enable members to make a difference on their own doorsteps."

To apply for a Join In Fairtrade toolkit contact 0800 088 4862 or visit www.co-operative.coop/fairtrade/campaign-toolkit.

The Christian Column

AS I SEE IT ... by Geoff Treleaven

Jumping to conclusions

THERE have been occasions when I have talked to people about a particular situation and they have assumed a meaning I did not intend or express. They have even guessed they knew what I was thinking!

For those who want to know the truth, it is always wiser to check first. It is so easy to misunderstand. As he Bible says: "He who answers before listening - that is his folly and his shame." (Proverbs 18:13).

When I was a prison visitor, the chaplain once gave me specific instructions which I totally observed. But because another visitor who was with me acted otherwise, I was blamed for the outcome! The chaplain never asked me for my explanation. I also remember when a fellow believer held such fixed opposing views to mine, he told me he didn't care what I said. So I said nothing. There are occasions when argument achieves nothing.

I think the lesson from these examples is obvious. Rather than assuming conclusions from what someone has said or done, we should make certain there is a correct understanding between us. Unfortunately, misunderstandings, taken to an extreme, can spoil a good friendship and even lead to unnecessary quarrels.

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

Anyone for nuts?

ANYONE for peanuts? Surely someone out there must want some?

Well, to be honest, someone out there doesn't want peanuts because they're throwing them out to feed squirrels who need no second invitation to boost their winter food stores.

Unfortunately squirrels are also notorious for burying their snacks ready to be retrieved when winter times get hard.

We watched in disbelief as one squirrel came into our garden and right up to the window, bold as brass, where it inspected our pots of flower displays before selecting one to bury its peanut in.

A couple of indignant bangs on the glass sent it hastily packing, but this is just one squirrel we happened to spot. How many more of them are there out there that we've missed seeing burying peanuts in our garden?

I know it happens because last summer, busily weeding the vegetable patch, I pulled up a plant I hadn't seen before to discover it had sprouted from a squirrel's buried peanut. Thank God they don't have sequoia seeds at their disposal!

Music vandalism brings tears to my eyes!

WHEN I heard this yarn it almost brought a tear to my eye at the tragic music loss involved.

I was certainly prompted to check my own store of old 78 records almost for reassurance that they were still there because this is a tale of playfulness and the cost involved for a few seconds of fun.

The scene is Littlemoor in Weymouth some years ago and a bunch of feisty kids out in the countryside.

There were no such things as Frisbees in those days but similar inventiveness was richly available and the youngsters had simply grabbed a few handfuls of old 78s and gone out to skim them across the fields with the inevitable smashing results.

SMASH! went one of Glen Miller's finest, CRASH! went Elvis and BASH! went Frank Sinatra, recordings which now must be worth considerable sums of money.

So you might think the youngsters committing this music vandalism had no sense of value, no appreciation for music...but you'd be wrong.

One of those children - now a 56-year-old - said they did keep a single 78 "because we were kids and we didn't want anything to happen to it". The recording in question was Sparky's Magic Piano. Well, they were kids!

Islanders furious at precept proposal...and so they should be

IF Portlanders needed something to stir them up then suggesting their council tax precept should go up by 1,000 per cent was bound to provoke a strong reaction.

Already firmly convinced that Portland doesn't get the same crack of the whip that Weymouth does, islanders are furious at the precept proposals to boost coffers even if the money is destined for island use.

When all is said and done I can understand their feelings because paying £32 for a pint of beer, £70 for a taxi in to town or £60 for a simple haircut is only the same style increase as that being proposed for the precept, up from £14 to £150.

A town council meeting tonight must sort this one out, but islanders are seething and a few hangings in effigy can be expected not to mention some very vocal offerings at the meeting.

Not for the first time, the way this concept has been carried out has seen councillors come in for heavy criticism and surely those in power have to wake up sooner or later to the fact that the way they sometimes carry things out is flawed and needs changing.

Lack of communication has been at the root of many past complaints and it has reared its head again over the precept. Something has to be done to rectify so simple a failing but I'm not holding my breath.

I think tonight's people power may drive the point home and it seems likely that proposals for just a two per cent precept increase may win the day.

Marmalade or chutney?

PREGNANT women have been known to crave weird dishes such as fish cakes and custard and finicky children can sometimes be coaxed into having something to eat using unusual ingredients.

But I've never come close myself to being served one of these concoctions...until now.

I'm currently recovering at home from a cancer operation and one of my diet requirements is to eat small and varied portions for my meals so surgical wounds in my stomach are not strained by too large amounts of food.

All had been going well until a breakfast incident made me openly laugh, not a good idea as it provokes certain bodily reactions we won't go in to here.

The reason for my laughter was that my wife, heroically caring for me and fighting life on all fronts practically on her own, is well known for not being at her best in the early morning.

So this morning in question she had brought me my toast and marmalade...but she had to turn round, take it back and produce another lot for me.

Why? Well she'd been on bleary auto pilot and it was only as she brought the toast in to me that she realised that the jar of marmalade she'd used had actually been a jar of pungent chutney!

If I'd consumed that I'd have had no problem going to the loo for a while!

Students test out seahorse costume ahead of parade

A SPECTACULAR seahorse costume in production since early December has been unveiled for the benefit of Budmouth Technology College students in Weymouth.

The incredible 45-foot Carnival-style costume was created by artist and designer Sarah Butterworth at her studio in Compton Valence.

Destined for a Chinese New Year event in Manchester, Sarah was only too happy to have the Budmouth students put it through its paces first.

Weymouth Sea Life Park spokesman Laura Culshaw said: "The college is using seahorses as the theme for a community art project this year.

"They plan to produce 150 decorative wooden seahorses and feature them as a spectacular wall display at the Sea Life Park."

Laura and her Sea Life colleagues

by Harry Walton

hosted the students on a visit to see living assorted seahorses at the park after their visit to Compton Valence.

Weymouth Sea Life cluster marketing manager Lucy Putt said: "The big seahorse appeared at Manchester's Chinatown as part of an appeal by Manchester Sea Life Centre for China to remember the 'seahorse' during its Year of The Horse.

"They thought it would be a very striking way of appealing to the community and afar to help stem the annual toll of seahorses killed for traditional medicines.

"Latest estimates suggest the number killed every year could be as high as 150 million."

SEA Life recruited Sarah Butterworth to make the seahorse after learning of her earlier project – Horace the Pliosaur – a 35ft model of a prehistoric marine reptile which appeared at festivals and events all over the South West last summer

Sign up to library's six book challenge

LIBRARIES across Dorset are joining forces with crime drama author Martina Cole for this year's Six Book Challenge.

Now in its eighth year, the national initiative is organised by The Reading Agency to encourage more people to read.

All participants have to do is pick six reads of your choice and complete a reading diary. You can also share your reading choices with other participants at the Six Book Challenge website as well as rate and review what you read, and search for your next book.

At the end of the challenge, those who sign up will get a certificate and be entered in a draw to win both national and local prizes.

Staff at all county council run libraries will be on hand to provide help and advice to anyone interested in taking up the challenge, which runs from until the end of June.

Councillor Peter Finney, Cabinet member for community services at Dorset County Council, said: "As a county council, we are very concerned about people who have poor reading skills, so we fully support this initiative.

"We are encouraging people in Dorset to take up the Six Book Challenge and uncover the sheer pleasure of reading and the benefits it brings. A recent survey revealed that ninety per cent of people taking part said that they were more confident about reading after completing the challenge.

"Whether you are new to reading or haven't taken out a book in a while, Dorset libraries guarantee a warm welcome and will help you on your reading journey."

National ambassador for this year's challenge, Martina Cole, said: "The wonderful thing about the Six Book Challenge is that people who don't normally read, or who think that reading isn't their bag, are encouraged to pick up a book.

"When you read a book you have to picture it all in your own mind. No one tells you what you're seeing or what you should be feeling. That's the secret of reading – it's such a personal thing."

"Reading can open so many doors in life," said Genevieve Clarke, who leads The Reading Agency's Six Book Challenge and adult literacy work.

"We're really pleased to have Martina Cole on board plus fabulous support from partners such as Dorset as we take the scheme to even more people who will benefit from it."

Don't face blindness alone

by Trevor Bevins

ALMOST 5,000 Dorset residents registered as blind or partially sighted are aged 75 or older – many of them facing problems of isolation, according to the Dorset Blind Association.

The association says that as people grow older social networks break down as friends and relatives pass away and many who came to the county to retire often find themselves coping alone.

A report by the NatCen social research body claims the older blind and visually impaired have difficulties trying to access health services, feel a lower sense of wellbeing, are more prone to lack self-confidence and feel their overall health is adversely affected. This group of people are also more prone to depression.

"So many live alone and often have other challenges such as age related hearing loss and/or other physical health problems or mobility restrictions commonly associated with older age," Dorset Blind Association Chief Executive officer Jonathan Holyhead explains.

"That is why the work carried out by the Dorset Blind Association and its volunteers is so vital."

"For those who have no local family support the Dorset Blind Association becomes the replacement and we quickly become the re-assurance or safety net which they need in their lives.

"As one elderly lady recently said, 'I would not like to try and cope without the Dorset Blind Association and the people who work there. I like knowing that I can phone for help when I need it and someone will always come and help me'.

"We want to continue providing that help for as long as we can and for as many people as we can."

For more information about the Dorset Blind Association visit www.dorsetblind.org.uk.

Volunteers needed for verge survey

VOLUNTEERS are needed to survey roadside verges throughout the South Dorset Ridgeway area.

The Lottery-funded South Dorset Ridgeway Project will see volunteers visit each section of verge a minimum of twice during the growing season of 2014.

Verges will then be assessed for their wildlife value and their potential for improvement. A contractor will then be engaged to carry out appropriate restoration and enhancement management of selected sites during the following season of 2015.

During the remaining three years of the project, to 2018, these verges will be monitored for any signs of improvement.

"Roadside Verges are a very important part of our landscape adding to the beauty of the area, but they are also very important corridors for wildlife. You can play your part in helping to identify the best," said Joy Wallis at Dorset Wildlife Trust.

Volunteers should be reasonably fit and able to enter their findings online, for which training will be given, if needed.

New byelaws protecting seabed habitats welcomed

THE Dorset Wildlife Trust (DWT) has welcomed the announcement from Southern Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authority (Southern IFCA) of two new byelaws to protect high risk and sensitive marine habitats in Dorset, Hampshire and the Isle of Wight.

These byelaws will now protect reef and seagrass habitats in European Marine Sites (EMS) from potentially damaging mobile fishing gear, such as dredges and trawls, and bait gathering practices.

In Dorset, these EMS's lie within the areas of: Lyme Bay; Studland to Portland; Chesil and The Fleet and Poole Harbour. Enforcement of these byelaws means that up to 25 per cent of the total Southern IFCA district area will be permanently closed to high impact, damaging mobile fishing methods.

The new byelaws include the prohibition of bottom towed fishing gear and gathering in seagrass beds.

DWT Marine Conservation Officer, Emma Rance said: "These byelaws represent a great step forward in conservation.

"Rocky reef habitats support slow growing sponges and corals. Eelgrass meadows provide a nursery for juvenile commercial fish species and sea horses. Both habitats are vulnerable to irreversible damage when dredged or trawled.

"The byelaws will prevent any further habitat loss and in doing so, maintain the health, productivity and economic value of the marine environment for fishermen and conservationists alike."

Many of the fishing methods used to catch the 40 different commercial species in Dorset are static in nature and have a low impact on seabed habitats. These methods include rod and line, pots, traps and gill nets. The low impact traditional fishery is recommended through Dorset Wildlife Trust's Great Dorset Seafood campaign, which supports the sale of seafood caught using environmentally sensitive methods.

Creative Solutions to getting noticed because attention is the sign of the times.

AS SUCCESS stories go, the rise of Creative Solutions is up there with the very best of them – with a 2,600% increase in business in a decade that has seen the Axminster-based experts in attention-getting soar to a catalogue of 13,000 clients.

BUSINESS PROFILE by Geoff Baker

'It amazes me to think of the number of businesses that we've helped in 10 years,' says print manager Ben Whittington, 'back then we had a portfolio of 500 clients, mainly churches and smaller local businesses.'

'And now...now we've got blue chip companies like Barclaycard, Pearson Education, Red Bull, Network Rail, the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital, Bafta and Cambridge University among the customers whom we have helped to make happy.'

Creative Solutions are in the attention business; that key to the success of any company – key because in today's multiple-option marketplace catching the eye of a customer is what counts. As the old adage says, out of sight is out of mind – but because Creative Solutions are also the specialists in large format printing, your business banners could put you massively in the mind of your market.

'That's what it all boils down to in business; getting noticed, catching the eye,' says Ben. 'You can have the best product or service on the planet, but if nobody's noticing you, you won't sell it.'

Attention to detail

And this of course is why successful local businesses from River Cottage, Axminster Tools and Hix's Restaurants to Palmer's Brewery, Groves Nursery, Total Plumbing and Dorset Tea all turned to Creative Solutions when they needed to get noticed.

'If you'll excuse the pun, attention is the sign of the times,' says Ben.

'But more than that, it's a case of our attention to your detail. No matter how big or small the job our team can make you stand out. Because we use the latest technology and machines we can print onto pretty much anything you want, and as big as you want.'

A look through their website – www.creative-solutions-direct.co.uk – reveals a treasure trove of the endless ways to best promote yourself. Every conceivable option of all kinds of signage is expertly catered for – from their large format machines accommodating business interiors and exteriors, shop fronts, exhibition stands, banners, indoor/outdoor displays and advertising boards to business cards and stationary, pavement signs, leaflets, flyers, brochures – even graphics for your van or truck.

You name it, they can print for it – from design and production to installation in a one-stop shop.

In fact, so many sign systems and services are available that it is somewhat surprising that there's only eight of these young, vibrant minds behind the business which has become one of the UK's leading print and display specialists, and something of a feather in the cap of West Country enterprise.

'We're a rapidly-growing company but we like to keep the team tight because the familiar face, the personal touch gives us a first-name relationship with our customers. We're all very hands-on because that makes it easier to brain-storm solutions, which we do a lot,' said Ben.

Over in Lyme Regis the community has known the friendly bright sparks of Creative Solutions for many years. Ben and his operations manager brother Jedd, sales manager Chris Lenton and production manager Matt Coalter all live locally and became popular in Lyme long before their success caused the need for the company to recently expand to their purpose-built premises on Axminster's Millwey Rise Trading Estate.

'Now that we've got a new, bigger base we are able to offer an even larger selection of products and services at the same, or even better, prices and quality,' said Ben.

'There are all sorts of new ways with printing these days – for instance, we can print your wallpaper for your offices, or even for your home. Bring us your own design, or our designer will work with you, and we can print your own personalised wallpaper for any room in your house. We could even print you a new view to go in your garden.'

'As another instance, vehicle livery – what you say on your van – is an advertising opportunity that many businesses have yet to exploit to its fullest potential. We can help make your vehicle the eye-catcher on the road. We recently designed an especially attention-grabbing look for Lyme fishmonger Simon Bennett's Wet Fish Shop truck and now it's standing out in the traffic on his deliveries all over London.'

As Mr Bennett testifies, it's the 'quick, quality, keen and clever' thoroughness of Creative Solutions that makes you stand out in the crowd, and in business these days getting noticed is priority No 1.

'It's all about significance,' says Ben, 'when we sign off on a job your customers will sign on.'

For advice on how Creative Solutions can help signpost your business to new directions, go to www.creative-solutions-direct.co.uk and sign up for a new customer account that will entitle you to 10% off* your first order when you use the special code VF01.

*Offer runs until the end of March 2014.

The Story of St.Valentine

IN 270 A.D., marriage had been outlawed by the emperor of Rome, Claudius II. Claudius issued this decree because he thought that married men made bad soldiers since they were reluctant to be torn away from their families in the case of war. Claudius had also outlawed Christianity in this time period because he wished to be praised as the one supreme god, the Emperor of Rome. Valentine was the bishop of Interamna during this period of oppression. Valentine thought that the decrees of Rome were wrong. He believed that people should be free to love God and to marry. Valentine invited the young couples of the area to come to him. When they came, Valentine secretly performed services of matrimony and united the couples.

Valentine was eventually caught and was brought before the emperor. The emperor saw that Valentine had conviction and drive that was unsurpassed among his men.

Claudius tried and tried to persuade Valentine to leave Christianity, serve the Roman empire and the Roman gods. In exchange, Claudius would pardon him and make him one of his allies. St. Valentine held to his faith and did not renounce Christ. Because of this, the emperor sentenced him to a three-part execution. First, Valentine would be beaten, then stoned, and then finally, decapitated. Valentine died on February 14th, 270 A.D.

While in prison, waiting for his sentence to be carried out, Valentine fell in love with the jailer's daughter, the blind Asterius. During the course of Valentine's prison stay, a miracle occurred and Asterius regained her sight. Valentine sent her a final farewell note. He signed his last note, "From Your Valentine." Even today, this message remains as the motto for our Valentine's Day celebrations.

Symondsbury Kitchen

THE most recent transformation on Symondsbury Estate is the new café – Symondsbury Kitchen.

The Symondsbury Kitchen offers a selection of seasonal locally sourced and home cooked food, and the ethos is to offer delicious food in the most stunning and relaxing surroundings.

Seating up to 30 people inside, and the same amount outside in the warmer months, it's the ideal spot for lunch. There is also a relaxing corner, where you can "chill out" on the sofas and soak up the warm and cosy ambience whilst enjoying afternoon tea with cake.

Currently open from Thursday through to Sunday for Breakfast, Lunch and afternoon teas, delicious home-made cakes, coffee, hot chocolate, tea, cold drinks, and daily special lunches. All are welcome including dogs!

Friday, February 14th will see the Kitchen opening in the evening for the first time – offering a Valentine's Meal. The guest chef is Nick Holt of Dorset Fine Dining – two and three courses are available, and bookings are essential.

Late last year, Symondsbury Estate transformed a somewhat disheveled Milking Shed into Symondsbury Kitchen. Its now hard to believe that this beautiful café used to house around 30 cows and two milkmaids! Sympathetic renovations have transformed this building whilst still managing to retain many of the original features and character.

We have also created an 8km XC mountain bike and walking trail, which starts and finishes at Manor Yard, making Symondsbury Kitchen the perfect place to gather after a winter walk or bike ride through the stunning countryside.

Tea parties for children can be arranged, and the venue is available for private hire both at lunchtimes and evenings.

There is a selection of different venues throughout the Estate that are available for private hire, and the Estate welcome any local community groups or clubs that are looking for a meeting place. All catering can be arranged for you, whatever the occasion.

Everyone at the Symondsbury Kitchen pride themselves on being flexible, so if you have a specific request please contact them and they will be happy to discuss your requirements and create a tailor made package to suit your needs.

They look forward to welcoming you to Symondsbury Kitchen!

Sign up to biking courses

LOCAL bikers are being invited to three presentations about techniques which could save their lives.

Dorset County Council has sponsored the sessions which have been organised by the Dorchester and West Dorset Advanced Motorcyclists (DWDAM).

They will take place towards the end of April and early May and will be led by former motorcycle cop Doug Miners.

"We are purely a voluntary group, none of our officers or observers is paid but all want to improve the safety and enjoyment of riders in Dorset. Interestingly enough those that complete the whole programme find they get a lot more out of their biking, as well as being safer," said Linda Ashmore from the group.

According to Department of Transport figures motorcycle riders are 50 times more likely to be killed or seriously injured than car drivers and 13 times more likely to be involved in a crash which results in injury.

In around two out of three collisions, human error is the cause although bikers are at fault in just over a third of all motorcycle crashes.

One in three drivers involved in a daylight collision with a motorcyclist claim not have seen the rider before the crash, at night, this rises to over half of all drivers.

Although more vulnerable on the roads, motorcycle riders have the advantage of height and also the flexibility to position themselves on the road.

Understanding how to make the most of these advantages is a start to enable riders to increase their awareness and ability to react to all the risks inherent in particular road and traffic situations.

The presentations, by Doug Miners, now the Driver and Rider Training Manager for the Ambulance service, will be on Wednesdays at 7.30pm on April 23rd and 30th and May 7th at the George Albert Hotel, Evershot, north of Dorchester on the A37. They are free to all bikers.

Riders can follow up these presentations by signing up for the Institute of Advance Motorcyclists Skills for Life Programme with the Dorchester and West Dorset Advanced Motorcyclists (DWDAM).

Tea and talk event for mental health

VOLUNTEER Centre Dorset are supporting the "Tea and Talk" campaign, being delivered by Dorset Mental Health forum, by hosting a presentation at the Gallery Durngate Street Dorchester between 11am and 12.30pm on February 27th.

The presentation provides an interactive and informative insight into the stigma and discrimination surrounding mental health issues. And is aimed at challenging some of the public's misconceptions.

Deputy Manager Craig Womble said: "We hope to increase the awareness of this subject for the benefit of all groups and to enable us to support individuals from a variety of backgrounds into volunteering and or paid work would like to dispel some of the myths surrounding mental health.

"Many organisations are extremely supportive, and some just need a greater insight into the subject.

"There are a large group of highly skilled individuals still finding it hard to access voluntary roles locally. Therefore we are looking for individuals from a range of organisations to attend the free presentation and find out more."

The hour long workshop will be delivered by service users and staff from the Dorset Mental Health Forum and be an opportunity to ask questions one to one, or as a group.

Free refreshments will be provided.

To book a place as numbers are limited please contact Volunteer Centre Dorset Craig Womble on 01305269214 or email c.womble@volunteeringdorset.org.uk.

Or log on to www.volunteeringdorset.org.uk to find out more about the project.

Parents warned to keep children in school

AS February half-term approaches parents and carers are being warned of the consequences of taking children out of school for unauthorised holidays.

A change in the law now makes it more likely that offending parents will be fined a "fixed penalty" of £60, or if they fail to pay that, brought before the courts where fines can reach £1,000.

The changes in the law take away the general right of head teachers to grant leave outside the normal school holidays.

Dorset County Council Cabinet spokesperson for education, Councillor Toni Coombs, says that parents often argue that a few days will make little difference to a child's education.

A child who has ten days holiday each year of their school life will miss 24 weeks – that's nearly a whole school year," she said.

"I understand that family holidays are general cheaper during term time, but a child gets only one chance at education, so I would encourage parents to do their best not to take children out of school unless they really have to."

Malabar Trading

ALLEVIATE the gloom of February by a visit to Malabar Trading where the colours of the textiles cannot fail to cheer. There are new beautiful woollen blankets and throws in the shop and handwoven kilim cushion covers in a variety of colours and designs. Other new items are arriving this week, amongst them are some Turkish kilims and Afghan kilim runners.

During the month of February there will be many shipments arriving including nickel and glass lamps and Japanese ceramics and later in the month a variety of blockprinted textiles from India.

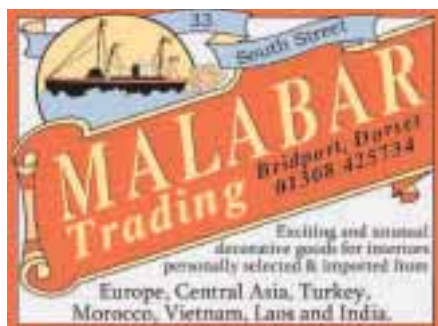

As ever there is a large selection of quilts, bedspreads, tablecloths and nightwear.

Most of the goods in the shop are partly chosen for the reason that they are either hand-printed, as in the blockprints, hand-embroidered, as in the suzans and chikan curtains, hand-woven as in the dhurries and kilims, or handmade, as in the terracotta baking dishes and the marquetry frames. All of these items are also chosen for their quality and usefulness.

TRIUMPHANT HOMETOWN RETURN FOR BRISTOL-BASED PARTY MERCHANTS

Papa Le Gal at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis. Saturday, January 25th. Review by Ross Packman

ON A frigid January evening, the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis was host to a dose of undiluted sunshine courtesy of Papa Le Gal, the town's biggest musical exports, returning home after a long absence.

Following an extended hiatus in 2013 and a relocation to the buzzing musical hub of Bristol, this event served as both Papa Le Gal's first hometown show of the year, and a statement of intent for 2014. Before the main event, and easing the crowd into the evening, Ella Squirrel offered up a selection of sultry acoustic numbers, her diminutive stature belying an impressive vocal maturity.

Papa Le Gal have built up a reputation for their showmanship as well as their sunshine-filled songs, and this evening was no exception. For one night only, the Marine Theatre was transformed into a South American jungle, the perfect setting for their idiosyncratic blend of samba, white funk and Afro and Latin rhythms.

The event saw the band break away from a much-loved catalogue of covers, relying instead on a full set of original material. New tracks 'Sunrise' and 'Unconditional Love' displayed a more measured approach to song writing, while old favourites 'Voodoo' and 'Sidewinder' irresistibly drew the crowd to the dance floor. Another new song, 'Madame Abeline', built to a storming Saxophone-led crescendo, aptly displaying the band's effortless multi-instrumentalism, before Papa finished the night with 'Bombay Satire' and a thunderous accompaniment courtesy of the B Sharp youth music group.

With the night's festivities caught on camera by a Chestnut Productions film crew, and a sold-out show just days into January, 2014 looks set to be a big year for Papa Le Gal, a band well deserving of BBC 6 Music's assertion that they are 'one of the hottest bands around'.

Under My Skin

Dance at the cutting edge of surgery

IF YOU have ever had a surgical procedure or been caught up in the tension of an operation in a TV drama then an extraordinary and inspiring new work from Sadhana Dance will give you a new understanding of the skill of surgical teams.

Surgery may seem an obscure and unlikely inspiration for dance, but in Under My Skin, performed at Dorchester's Corn Exchange on Wednesday, February 12th, three performers take us to the heart of the operating theatre, where intricate detail, perfect timing and precisely controlled exchanges are as important as they are in dance.

Working hand in hand with eminent surgeon Professor Roger Kneebone from Imperial College London, choreographer Subathra Subramaniam undertook extensive research with internationally renowned scientists to prepare the piece.

The result is a work that combines classical Indian and contemporary western dance and demonstrates how art and science complement each other.

Rosalind Conlon, Dance Producer from Activate Performing Arts, saw the piece when it was first created and says: "The precision and care that surgeons take to prepare and undertake surgery requires a precise and careful set of movements. We have all seen TV shows where Doctors scrub-up in preparation for the theatre. This piece is an excellent demonstration of how this process can be transformed into choreographed movement - the piece is really beautiful and moving. In the pre-show I also learnt how to stitch (simulated) skin - fascinating!"

Prior to the performance, there is an opportunity to gain a further insight into the complex world of surgery as Prof Kneebone invites members of the audience to join him and nurse Sharon Weldon to participate in a simulated 'operation' beginning at 6.45pm.

Following the performance there will be a Café Scientifique debate with Quentin Cooper (former presenter of BBC Radio 4's Material World).

Australian stand-up to headline Comedy Cafe

AWARD winning Australian comic Yianni Agisilaou will headline the first Comedy Café night of the year this Friday (February 7th).

A regular on the world comedy circuit Yianni was the talk of last year's Edinburgh Fringe with his 'Think Big' show which saw him close the festival at the city's biggest venue supported by Ed Byrne.

The comedy café nights are returning this year bigger and better than ever after teaming up with Mirth Control, the UK's leading booker of independent comedy clubs.

The partnership means the café will be able to attract even more big names to add to the growing list of acts who have gone on to become TV regulars.

Completing the line up at next Friday's gig will be the relentlessly middle class Glaswegian Neil McFarlane, new acts Archie Maddocks and Tim O'Connor as well as regular host, and Bridport based comedian, Tom Glover.

As well as introducing the acts, as ever Tom will be sharing his latest material with the home crowd.

The BAC Comedy Cafe will be at 8pm on Friday, February 7th. Tickets are £7 adults/£5 concessions and available from the arts centre box office on 01308 424204.

Archaeology Evening

AN Archaeology evening will be held this Friday, February 7th at Dorset County Museum. This is primarily a members' event but everyone is welcome to attend, especially potential new members.

The event will commence with a book launch and will be followed by three short illustrated talks. David Carter will discuss the recent works at Sandsfoot Castle in Weymouth; Clare Randall will talk about the Cowleaze Cemeteries, and Jon Murden, Director of the Museum, will talk about the newly conserved Langton Herring Iron Age Mirror now displayed in the Museum's archaeology gallery.

The launch of a brand new book, Paleolithic Archaeology at Broom in the Axe Valley by Dr Rob Hosfield and Dr Chris Green of Reading University, will commence at 6.30pm and copies of the book will be available to buy. The co-editors will give a brief presentation on the book before signing copies for purchase.

All are welcome to attend this event at Dorset County Museum. The book launch will take place at 6.30pm to be followed by the three lectures at 7.30pm. Entry is free: a donation of £3.00 is encouraged to cover costs.

Ladies' Night with Adonis Cabaret

THE Adonis Cabaret Show was created in Vienna, Austria, whilst on tour in 1996 after the realisation that a lot of male strip shows took themselves far too seriously and forgot that the performers are on stage to please and entertain the audience, not themselves. Top performer entrepreneur Tristan formulated a unique night of mayhem with the help of some of the top drag acts and male strippers in cities around the world and the show soon evolved into regular UK Saturday nights on the south coast popular as hen night entertainment as well as for girls out for a fun night. Since then the Adonis show has gone from strength to strength, touring overseas as well as around the UK.

Following the success of the Adonis Cabaret clubs nationwide comes The Adonis Cabaret Ladies Night Show. We are the UK's Top Hen and Stag Night company and run shows in Blackpool, London, Brighton, Newcastle, Leeds and Bournemouth, so you can be assured of the finest quality performers at ALL times with the best service! The Adonis Cabaret male strippers and Drag Queens have been taking the UK by storm, bringing together some of the best entertainers in the business for a fantastic night of music, comedy and erotica with the emphasis on cabaret and fun. Adonis Cabaret is a fantastic concept in girls' night entertainment!

An international drag comedian hosts the night and will have you in hysterics before the funniest, hunkiest, most televised male strippers in the business titillate you with some amazing routines!

The Show is 'Full Monty' so be prepared!

The Adonis Cabaret Show comes to Bridport's Electric Palace on Friday, February 21st. Doors open 7pm, with the show starting at 8pm. Advance tickets are £14 plus booking fee from Bridport TIC: 01308 424901 and online at seetickets.com, or £16 on the door.

Geology Lecture at Dorset County Museum

A TALK at Dorset County Museum by Dr Gareth Dyke of Southampton University aims to answer an ongoing question amongst geologists: What is a Bird?

The evolution of wings in dinosaurs, and the eventual emergence of birds, was undoubtedly a momentous step in the progression of vertebrate life on our planet. Using fossil evidence, Dr Dyke will unfold the history of birds and their dinosaur predecessors through a study of their anatomical diversity as well as lifestyles and habitats. He will discuss recent fossil discoveries which show key stages in the refinement of parachuting, gliding and - maybe - flapping flight.

Dr Dyke will also explain how birds managed to survive the massive extinctions at the end of the Cretaceous period which killed every remaining non-avian dinosaur.

The talk takes place at Dorset County Museum at 6.30pm on Wednesday, February 12th.

All are welcome to this talk - entry is free and a donation of £3 is encouraged to cover costs. Doors open at 6.30pm, the talk will commence at 7pm.

Triple Bill for Opening Night of From Page to Screen

A TRIPLE bill of speakers will open this year's From Page To Screen, the UK's only film festival dedicated to the adaptation of books into films, to be held in Bridport, West Dorset, on April 2nd-6th.

The opening night will feature a special screening for members only of the movie Frank, which received rave reviews at last month's Sundance Film Festival, and was directed by Lenny Abrahamson and co-written by Jon Ronson, From Page to Screen's Guest Curator. Frank is an offbeat comedy, starring Michael Fassbender, Maggie Gyllenhaal and Domhnall Gleeson, about a wannabe musician who finds himself out of his depth when he joins a maverick rock band led by the enigmatic Frank - a musical genius who hides himself inside a large fake head. Written by Ronson, a journalist, documentary filmmaker and author of nonfiction books including The Men Who Stare at Goats, and Peter Straughan, a writer and director best known for Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy, Frank is a fictional story based on the memoir by Ronson, who played the keyboards in Frank Sidebottom's band.

CURATOR | Jon Ronson will curate From Page To Screen

Ronson will be on stage after the screening, 'in conversation' with Straughan and Abrahamson. Earlier in the day you can see Ronson's new one-man show Frank: My Story and get the true story behind the movie.

Polly Gifford, Director of Bridport Arts Centre, said: "We are thrilled to have such an amazing triple bill of speakers for our opening night and we will be rolling out the red carpet in Bridport."

Frank isn't scheduled for release in the UK until May but festival audiences can see it first at this special event. The screening is only open to festival members but tickets include day membership.

Last month it was confirmed that author Nick Hornby will be attending this year's From Page to Screen festival, ahead of a screening of A Long Way Down, his fourth novel to be made into a film. Ronson and Straughan will also be 'in conversation' before a showing of The Men Who Stare at Goats, the 2009 British comedy war film starring George Clooney. The screenplay was written by Straughan and based on Ronson's book.

A full programme of Ronson's film choices will be announced later this month. Bridport Arts Centre in collaboration with the Electric Palace cinema will show a wide range of films over five days at the two venues. Most screenings will feature a talk by authors or filmmakers, giving audiences the chance to go beneath the surface of their favourite films and discover more about the film-making process.

Ronson's other books include international bestsellers The Psychopath Test and Them: Adventures with Extremists. His latest book is a collection of real-life adventure stories - Lost at Sea: The Jon Ronson Mysteries. Jon writes for the Guardian, he has his own Radio 4 series Jon Ronson On... and his many Channel 4 documentaries include Secret Rulers of the World and Stanley Kubrick's Boxes.

From Page To Screen was founded in 2009 by Bridport Arts Centre, inspired by the Bridport Prize - one of the UK's longest running and respected literary prizes.

You can also become a 'Friend of the Festival' again this year. By showing your support financially you can help sustain the festival as a keynote arts event in the Bridport calendar. Some extra benefits include advance notification of events and early bird booking, complimentary invite to a special 'Friends' event and free tickets for the festival raffle.

IN CONVERSATION | Nick Hornby, author of Fever Pitch and High Fidelity, will be 'conversation' with curator Jon Ronson

A chance to play with UK's top fiddle player Dave Swarbrick

A RARE chance is available to get up close and personal with hugely influential folk icon Dave Swarbrick and in addition, enjoy an all girl trio Said the Maiden who are making waves with their selection of trad arrangements and close harmonies, accompanied with fiddle, guitar and at times, wonderfully acapella.

To some, the name Dave Swarbrick is synonymous with innovation and he is indeed credited with heralding the 'Second Folk Revival' while in seminal Folk/Rock band Fairport Convention, who had their heyday in the 70s. To others he is the fiddler's yard stick to which they aspire. Here is your chance to hear not only the mesmerizing fiddle of 'Swarb', but also anecdotes and insights from his extraordinary life and ask any questions which are on the tip of your tongue.

Not only Swarb, but his support act are a delightful English Folk Trio 'Said the Maiden' who have been played by Mike Harding on his Folk show, and who are charming audiences across the country with their tight harmonies, playful style and blended unison singing. A perfect balance for this evening of entertainment.

Opportunity for local musicians to perform on the night

IN KEEPING with his role as Patron of the Folstock Arts Foundation, who are rapidly establishing themselves as champions of emerging acoustic and folk talent together with Electric Palace's new musicians collective 'Transformer', Swarb is inviting a local solo act or duo to perform three songs at the start of the evening. The act can be of any age or any experience and Dave Swarbrick will personally choose which act is selected. Please note that there is not a fee for the performance and the act should live within 50

If you would like to be in with a chance of this unprecedented opportunity to impress a new audience with your acoustic/ folk talents, please send a private message to the Electric Palace's Facebook page or make a public post on the Dave Swarbrick Facebook event page on the Facebook page of the Electric Palace, with links to your music on YouTube, Soundcloud or some other sound or video file.

Valentines Night Special: 'Realms' in Bridport

A romantic musical soiree awaits at the Bridport Arts Centre Jazz Café

REALMS is an intriguing collaboration of singer Rosalie Genay and pianist Rebecca Nash, two musicians who share a fascination and fondness for the songs of contemporary lyrical legends Tom Waits and Leonard Cohen. Together they have embarked on an ambitious journey to arrange some of their idols' tracks for this new project, consciously including less well known songs in amongst the more popular ones and setting them into imaginative new arrangements.

The song covers might lend themselves well to a more jazz-inspired backing but Genay is careful not to lose anything in the transition. By offering a different perspective on Waits and Cohen's music, and by including their own original tunes in their repertoire as well, Genay and Nash provide ample opportunities for enjoyment. This tour takes them outside their London base and around the UK to promote the release of their debut album in February 2014, supported by Jazz Services and Arts Council England. The album was partially funded through a very successful crowd-funding project via PledgeMusic, reaching its funding target within 20 days.

Rosalie Genay is a Dutch born, London based vocalist and songwriter and has been working professionally in London since moving there in 2004 after graduating from the Australian Institute of Music. She has worked with many leading musicians and vocalists on the scene and has appeared in various venues in Australia, Europe and the UK; the Bb Jazz Club - Berlin, Chet's Jazz Bar - Amsterdam, The Spice of Life, The Archduke, Pizza Express, Arcola and Soho Theatre, Oliver's Jazz Bar - London amongst others.

Rebecca Nash graduated from the Trinity College of Music Masters Course in 2012. She plays in a number of projects; her own trio, the folk-jazz fusion ensemble Wiza-hikken, Entropi, Paradox Ensemble, the Potter Ensemble, and Benin City. She has played at festivals including Glastonbury, Meltedown Festival, Isle of Wight Jazz Festival, Llangollen Jazz Festival, as well as many jazz clubs nationwide such as the Vortex, the Southbank Centre, and the Spice of Life. Rebecca has shared the stage with artists such as Tina May, Ed Jones, Anita Wardell, Steve Waterman, Christine Tobin, Phil Robson, Mark Lockheart, Henry Lowther and Alex Garnett amongst others.

Realms will perform at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, February 14th at 8pm. Tickets cost £10, and are available by calling 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com

Outstanding detached bungalow which lies in Hinton St. George

JEREMY Smith, Manager of Symonds & Sampson estate agents in Beaminster, is delighted to have been chosen to market an outstanding detached bungalow which lies in Hinton St. George, one of the areas most popular villages. Jeremy commented 'such opportunities rarely arise and we advise early viewing of this property which has been modernised to an extremely high standard'. The stylish accommodation has been enhanced with the introduction of partial open limestone flooring, oak doors and a bespoke oak porch. The large kitchen/dining room consists of Maple effect units with granite work surfaces, whilst also a very useful utility and cloakroom and good size sitting room. There are four bedrooms of which one is en-suite and a further family bathroom. The property also benefits from Upvc double glazing and oil central heating. The bungalow is approached over a sweeping tarmac driveway which provides extensive parking and leads to a double garage. The property is set in grounds of approx. 0.43 of an acre. Symonds & Sampson are quoting an asking price of £475,000 for the freehold and serious offer will be considered. Please contact either Jeremy, Erica, Kate or Jane on 01308 863100 to arrange a viewing.

Lanehouse Vauxhall advocates record-breaking Astra

For motorists in Dorset looking for a new car that packs a powerful punch, Lanehouse Vauxhall is on hand with a record-breaking suggestion!

The local Vauxhall retailer, with sites in Bridport and Weymouth, is inviting customers to give their consideration to the manufacturer's stylish Astra, after the model flew full pelt into the World and UK record books last month.

The model was acknowledged by motor-sport's governing bodies after its attempt to set or break 18 World and UK Speed Endurance Records was confirmed as successful. This achievement showcases the vehicle's exceptional reliability and places the model as an ideal choice for those who appreciate a powerful performance.

Record-breaker

In the autumn of last year, Vauxhall attempted two sets of speed endurance records: 12 in the FIA's* 1600-2000cc forced-induction diesel production car class, and a further six in the MSA's* 1500-2000cc forced-induction diesel production car class.

The lead Astra 2.0 CDTi 165PS in the challenge covered a total of over 3,000 miles in 24 hours, over 1,500 laps of a tortuous banked circuit at an average of just over 125mph, only stopping for fuel and a single, cautionary change of tyres.

All 18 records were achieved, with key records such as the World 1-hour, 6-hour, and 12-hour broken conclusively, and the long-standing UK 24-hour, which was smashed by 25mph.

Dominic Avery, Company Director at Lanehouse Vauxhall, comments: "This is a fantastic achievement displayed by the Vauxhall Astra.

▲ Vauxhall's record-breaking Astra sets or breaks 18 World and UK Speed Endurance Records, making it the ideal choice for drivers who appreciate power, performance and reliability

We always knew it was an impressive model, but now we have official proof!

"It offers qualities that many motorists are looking for: exceptional reliability, a good performance and economy blend, and long-distance comfort. As such, we would like to invite all those in the area looking for a new car to stop by our dealership, book a test drive and discover more about this record-breaking model from the Vauxhall line-up."

Innovatively affordable

To make taking to the road in a brand new Vauxhall Astra even more appealing, customers at Lanehouse Vauxhall could take advantage of the manufacturer's innovative Flexible Finance scheme.

With up to five years' 0% APR Representative, no minimum deposit and payment terms that can vary between 24 to 60 months, customers can tailor their finance and drive away with monthly payments to suit their individual budget. What's more, customers could also benefit from a Vauxhall deposit contribution of up to £2,000.

This means that customers at the retailer could take to the wheel in an Astra 5-door Excite 1.4i 16v VVT (100ps) for just £179 per month, over 60 months, with a £4,915 customer deposit.

In addition, Vauxhall offers all customers peace of mind long after their purchase, thanks to its industry-leading Lifetime Warranty. Available to the first owner of all new Vauxhall cars, the warranty is valid for the lifetime of the vehicle up to a maximum of 100,000 miles.

To find out more about the Vauxhall Astra, to book a test drive and to find your nearest Lanehouse Vauxhall site please go online to www.lanehousegroup.co.uk.

All-New Renault Traffic Due This Summer

An all-new Renault Traffic, a model that has notched up sales of more than 1.6 million units in the course of a buoyant career spanning more than 34 years, is due to be released this summer.

The illustration released today by the French manufacturer provides a pre-view glimpse of several of the forthcoming vehicle's salient features. "Its lines embody Renault's new brand identity. My aim was to achieve a dynamic, assertive stance without sacrificing either the robustness or user-friendliness customers expect of their van," notes the designer of New Renault Traffic, Kihyun Jung.

With the third-generation Traffic, Renault has focused on meeting the needs of business customers more closely than ever by providing them with 'Innovation for a Better Life'. The appeal of the van produced by Europe's number one LCV manufacturer since 1998 is boosted by revised styling, new technologies and a range of new engines that benefit from Renault's expertise in the world of Formula 1 racing. Further information about the all-new Renault Traffic will be available very soon.

West Dorset indoor youth cricket league

Cerne make Portland sweat for win

ONCE again the gathered crowd at The Osprey Centre witnessed some outstanding cricket as teams in the under 16s Division completed their fixtures.

PORTLAND U16 88-1 BEAT
CERNE VALLEY 82 ALL OUT
BY 5 WICKETS

A YOUNG, but spirited, Cerne made Portland battle to earn victory in a pulsating encounter.

Having elected to bat Cerne got off to a steady start scoring 15 from the first two overs. Portland's D Strong struck in the third over removing T Conibere (4) via an excellent catch from Lukin Wilson.

S Downey (30) and Theo White (21) stuck to the task as Portland playing a man short produced an improved display in the field.

With White departing to a fine run out, the run rate slowed as Wilson claimed two wickets to finish with figures of 2-0-21-2.

Portland snatched the final wicket as Downey's mature and classy innings came to a close via another run out as he aimed to add a few vital extra runs.

Matt Barrett (25 no) and Tyler Penny (29 no) started Portland's reply with some good shot selection and quickly raced to 33 of the first three overs.

With White, Conibere and B Simpson only conceding 18 runs of the next four overs it seemed that Cerne sensed a turn around.

But with Penny smashing 22 of the next over the writing was on the wall, and a finely placed shot from Wilson (4 no) brought Portland victory with three overs to spare.

MARTINSTOWN U16 164-1 BEAT
WEYMOUTH 49 ALL OUT BY 115 RUNS
A RAMPANT Martinstown put Weymouth to the sword with a classy all round display.

Electing to bat, Martinstown's batsman displayed superb technique and brilliant shot selection as they punished a wayward bowling display from Weymouth.

Teddy Andrews led the way with an outstanding half-century and he received excellent support from W Morrissey (29 no), T Blair (35 no) and Ninham (26 no).

Weymouth's only success came from an excellent stumping by Jack Sapsworth off the bowling of Dominic.

In reply Weymouth never got going. Luke Lovett needlessly ran himself out off the second ball of the innings and Dominic was cleaned bowled off the last.

Weymouth's backs were up against the wall as Martinstown never eased off the pressure, and it was only a defiant 34 from Tom Chedzoy that kept Weymouth in the game.

Tropics still out in the cold

WEYMOUTH College Tropics U16's are still looking for their first win of the season after the third round of games in the Solent Junior Local Basketball League.

In a move aimed at finding success, coach Alex Fuhrmann promoted Josh Turner in the hope a younger leader would inspire and motivate his young side, but alas to no avail.

WEYMOUTH COLLEGE TROPICS 18
SALISBURY SPIRES 26

IN the first game Weymouth faced off against Salisbury who has been a tough opponent since the start of the season.

It started as an evenly matched game as both teams exchanged baskets; Weymouth's young squad keeping the score low.

However as the game edged into the 4th quarter, things took a turn as Salisbury took a commanding six-point lead and were unwilling to let Weymouth get to the basket.

Tropics did attempt some last minute pick and roll offences, although it was clearly too late as the game finished 26 - 18 to Spires.

WEYMOUTH COLLEGE TROPICS 17
DORSET STORM B 30

WEYMOUTH came out firing in the second game as Max Gilmartin linked up with Jerry Thompson to take a six-point lead over league leaders Dorset Storm and looked to have improved from their previous game against Salisbury.

It was defence from Taine Mackay and Tim Hendy that then kept Weymouth competitive as Storm came back in the second-half.

Weymouth seemed to face their fate again as Storm jumped their play and, despite three blocks from Mackay, locked up the Tropics and cruised to a 30-17 win.

Coach Josh Turner said: "I was really excited about getting the opportunity to step up and head coach the team this evening."

"I was hoping I'd find back-to-back wins, but due to our lack of fire we really didn't show our true form."

"Both myself and coach Fuhrmann are really trying to instil the success to match the team's potential, but until the lads want to do it, we'll just keep trying."

Weymouth youth rugby

Seahorses put Kids First

WEYMOUTH Rugby Club has been selected by the RFU to pilot scheme a new initiative developed for Under 6 to Under 12 players in rugby called Kids First Rugby.

The Kids First programme is a new initiative which was launched last September.

The aim of the programme is quite straight forward and summed up by the title; to put the wants and needs of the children at the centre to what is done within the club and school environment.

Rugby can help children to be confident, competent, positive, creative and decisive which will be of great benefit to them in all aspects of life.

Kids First redirects the focus of coaching from coaching rugby to children, to developing children through rugby; a subtle, but significant difference in emphasis.

The personal and social development of children underpins and encompasses the other aspects of development; physical and movement, game understanding and skill focus believing good people make better rugby players.

Coaches at the club attended induction training days to familiarise themselves with the resources pack and the Kids First manifesto required before going live last Sunday.

More details can be found on the RFU website <http://www.rfu.com/ruckley> and or the clubs website <http://www.pitchero.com/clubs/weymouthrugbyfootballclub/>

MS winners of beach volleyball tournament

BATTENS Solicitors, organisers of the popular beach volleyball tournament have served up the proceeds to their nominated charity Multiple Sclerosis Society (MS) who netted a fantastic £1,047 for the South West Dorset branch.

Some 32 teams from local businesses and organisations fought out the sixth-annual charity extravaganza organised by Battens Solicitors last August, won by GH Podiatry.

MS branch chairman Graham Watts said: "It is a huge sum of money and a great boost to our funds, we are so grateful to Battens and everyone that took part."

"It is our single biggest donation over the past year and every penny will go to help people locally."

Charlotte Appleby, a lawyer in the Battens Weymouth office which organises the contest, said: "The beach volleyball is one of the main events we organise locally for charity."

"This year's tournament was another great success and we are pleased to be able to hand over such a large amount to such a worthy cause; our thanks to Weymouth and Portland Borough Council, Weymouth Volleyball Club and everyone who joined in the fun."

Battens Solicitors' annual tournament takes place on the eve of the televised RAF Careers Volleyball Classic on Weymouth beach.

Solicitor, Cherise Luke-Bennett who has been involved in the organisation of the event since it began said: "This year, the charity beach volleyball tournament will take place on Weymouth Beach on Thursday, July 31st.

"We look forward to welcoming teams from businesses across the region. Registration details can be found on our website."

The South West Dorset MS branch has 160 members, of which about 100 have MS.

It organises transport, physiotherapy, outings, exercise classes and mobility aids among other services.

The MS Society estimates that the total number of people living with MS in Dorset is 1,160.

SEVEN members of the Queen Bees of Bridport and Beaminster team have been selected for the Dorset Women Under 18 football squad following trials.

The seven, Gaby Gilchrist, Molly Hyde, Beth Letherby, Isabel Mullen, Sophie

Northover, Lucy Paul and Anna Roberts-Wray and joined by two Weymouth Ladies, Anne Reading and Rebecca Vallard, as well as Elinor Mason (Real Weymouth) and Katie Paul of Dorchester Ladies in the squad of 14.

Having made the Coaching Centre, they will meet for two hour sessions at the 3G facility of Dorchester Sports Centre on selected Monday evenings between now and the end of the season. Matches against Wiltshire, home and away have also been arranged.

The Centre will be coached by Dorset County FA's Development team; namely: Andrew Battison (Development Officer), Maddy Massey (Development Officer) and Jemma Tewkesbury (Administrator).

Further players may be added to the squad in due course.

Bob Buckler racing

Ugolin makes useful debut

THE long awaited debut of Ugolin De Beaumont finally took place last week.

After several abortive attempts, and although a sixth place finish in the 2m Connolly's Red Mills Bumper Challenge Standard Open NH Flat Race at Wincanton does not sound too impressive on paper, trainer Bob Buckler was delighted with his run.

"It has been difficult finding the right race for him and when we have the fixture has been cancelled or the ground waterlogged.

"The conditions over the past two months have also made it difficult to give him track experience at home which didn't help.

"It was a very good quality bumper with some very good horses in it, but he travelled well. However as they turned for home he was caught a bit one pace, but halfway down the straight he realised what he needed to do and stayed on well, passing several horses on the way.

"I'm absolutely delighted. He's a chaser in the making and coped well with the heavy ground, and will have learned a lot from the experience in his first run. He's an exciting horse for the future."

Despite being pulled up three fences out, Buckler was also pleased with the running of Redlynch Rock in the Conditional Jockeys Handicap Hurdle at Taunton.

The six-year-old who has excelled most in good ground found the atrocious conditions over 3m1f too much for him, and having been prominent for most of the way eventually gave way to the ground.

"He absolutely hated it. We decided to give him a run and see how he went, but he couldn't cope and in addition he ripped a front shoe off which wouldn't have helped him, but his jumping was sound.

"We will now wait for better ground before running him again."

Local swimmers shine at opening club Gala of year

SWIMMERS ranging from six to 16 years took part in Chard & District Swimming Club's first Club Gala of the year at Flamingo Pool in Axminster last week writes Hannah Pullinger.

Excellent swims secured a Bronze Speed badge for 9 and under swimmers Freddie Coles and Grace Lambert swimming under 20 seconds in the 25m free for the first time, and a Silver Speed Badge for Simon Davis (12) in the 50m freestyle, for swimming under 36 seconds for the first time.

There were also 43 Somerset County qualifying times achieved (regional and national qualifying times cannot officially be achieved at this level of competition).

Swimmers of the month were Henry Taswell (12) for achieving a new regional qualifying time in the 200m backstroke in December, and Xanthe Dyer (11) for achieving the most improvement points at galas in December.

Donovan hat trick lifts Beaminster to third

Beaminster 5 Blandford & Sturmin' 2nd 1

Channel Division One
BEAMINSTER moved into third place in Channel Division 1 by displacing their opponents with this comprehensive win.

Blandford & SN had beaten Beaminster 3-1 at home in mid November and with their blend of experience and youth, similar to the hosts were a good match.

However, it was in front of goal where Beaminster had the edge, and when Blandford did find their shooting boots they found Phoebe Stewart in good form in goal.

Beaminster made the best start they could with a goal inside 50 seconds. Hannah Dale's strong run down the right wing saw he feed Lucy Herbert who cut into the D before crossing to Danni Donovan whom had a simple conversion.

Whilst Beaminster had most of the play, the visitors were no mugs and had to be watched, particularly a slight, young midfield player who looks a good prospect for the future.

Herbert put Beaminster two up on ten minutes when she swept the ball home after a good move down the left.

She added a third on 19 minutes when Andrea Thomas' miscued shot found Donovan who showed good skills in beating two in the D before firing just inside the post.

Jenny Clarke then made a tremendous tackle to prevent the visitors pulling one back soon after.

The second half started as the first, with Beaminster scoring in the first half, this time Thomas made no mistake with a shot from the top of the D which appeared to surprise the visiting keeper.

Whether Beaminster relaxed at this point, but Blandford put them under a lot of pressure for the next few minutes and were rewarded with a goal from close in.

However they rallied and on 48 minutes Donovan completed her hat trick with a reverse stick shot from the top of the D past the outstretched foot of the keeper.

The game slowed from here as both sides tired and Beaminster conceded a penalty flick with 14 minutes to go in a goalmouth melee. But Blandford missed the opportunity; Stewart blocking the shot with her outstretched leg.

The win gives Beaminster 25 points from 14 games which should see them finish in the top four comfortably, but with no real chance of catching the top two.

Hawks machine rolls on

THE Two West Dorset sides continued their relentless push for promotion as they once again matched each other; easing past their opponents on Saturday to make it ten games unbeaten - nine of them victories.

ASHMOOR A O WEST DORSET HAWKS 1

HAWKS struggled to overcome second from bottom Ashmoor A by a single goal, but the point moved them level with second placed Yeovil & Sherborne A who had played a game more.

They have eight games left to play, and this Saturday face potentially their hardest and most important remaining fixture when they host leaders Sidmouth & Ottery B.

WEST DORSET A 4 ASHMOOR B 0

A YOUNG feisty Ashmoor side made West Dorset, who were boosted by the return of club captain Dan Wyatt returning after injury, fight for this victory.

The first half was close with both sides cancelling each other out, although the Hawks had most chances, and Ashmoor were thankful to their keeper for keeping them on level terms at the break thanks to a good save from John Kellis short corner strike.

Hawks changed the formation at halftime and it brought immediate success; Richard Miller diving to score on his reverse with a first time shot into the roof of the net from Julian May's 30 yard pinpoint pass.

Under pressure, Ashmoor lost procession on pushback to an interception from Kellis who beat three players before undercutting his shot like a missile past the goalies head.

A despondent Ashmoor fell apart and found it difficult to get out of their own half, and when they lost the ball in front of goal again, Kellis pounced to poach another.

The visitors tried to counter attack but to no avail and in the final minutes Simon Wakely made a great tackle before making himself space to blast home a shot into the back-board.

The victory sees West Dorset, like the first team, draw level on points with the second placed team ECV Hornets C who after defeat by WD last week could only draw with Isca E.

Dorset League round-up

Late penalty sees Chickens rule the roost

MERLEY Cobham Sports were knocked off top spot in a weekend that saw the top four teams play each other.

A 38th minute strike from WEYMOUTH RESERVES Lee Sharpe saw them slip to fourth and be replaced by the Terras, who had occupied that position before the start of play.

That was because PORTLAND UNITED and Hamworthy Recreation shared the points at Grove Corner leaving them as they started, in second and third place respectively.

After a goalless first-half, Tom Willis put Hamworthy in front on the hour, but Portland hit back to take a point with a goal from Ross Doige.

Mere Town moved into the top five with a 6-0 home victory over bottom club Poole Borough.

Jordan Collins grabbed a brace and there was one each for Tom Cowley, Ryan Hughes, Mariusz Kawaler and Matthew White for Mere who led 5-0 at the interval.

The game was marred by the sending off of a Borough player.

DORSET LEAGUE

ONCE again the Dorset Football League programme was decimated by the weather.

CHICKERELL UNITED moved into pole position in the SENIOR DIVISION following their 2-1 win over visitors PIDDLTRENTHIDE UNITED.

Nick Etherington and a last minute Dan Welch penalty gave the Chickens victory, with Neil Kellaway, also with a penalty conversion, scoring for the Piddletrenthide.

In Division One WEYMOUTH SPARTANS moved up into the top three with a 3-2 win against their visitors BRIDPORT 3RDS. The Bees led 2-1 at half-time with goals from Jamie McClements and Tom Fouracre but goals from Kieron Howes and a dubious penalty converted by Florinel Bujor, his second of the match, secured the points.

An Ashley White goal secured the points for fifth placed side KANGAROOS against their visitors Bere Regis.

POUNDBURY ROVERS and AFC Cobham shared the points and four goals with the Rovers goals coming from Jack Goldsack and Ben Thomas with Dan King and Mark Seal replying for Cobham.

PUDDLETOWN lost for the first time this season in DIVISION FOUR when they were beaten 2-0 by their visitors UNITED CLUB OF POUNDBURY, with goals from Sam Course and an OG.

Bowls

'Fleet sunk

Bridport Indoor Bowls
BRIDPORT faced Moonfleet for the second time this season and feared the worst as they were comprehensively beaten on all rinks in the first encounter.

However this is a different Bridport side now in the Wessex League, and new captain Chris Thorne has got a great spirit running through the squad, and despite playing against far bigger clubs are picking up good points.

Max Dare, Bill Payne, Paul Tibble and Brian Rumble picked up a superb two points at Weymouth, winning 19-17, while Chris Everest, Brian Walsh, Mel Griffiths and Thorne just missed out on another two points losing 15-16 at home.

Unfortunately Mike Parsons, Brian Galpin, Bob Taylor and Ken Enticott were beaten 21-27 and Phil Hedges, Dave Roberts, Brian Conisbee and Keith Gentry went down 5-31.

In the County Mixed League against Wellworthy, Barbara and Keith Jenkins, Sue Gentry and Peter Hunt secured two points, pipping their opponents 21-20.

Despite losing on all three rinks, Bridport enjoyed their annual trip to Sidmouth.

Gerry Moss, Barbara Jenkins, Beryl Stork and Brian Rumble were 13-10 up before going down 13-14, while Lyn and Mike Craddock, Robin Pither and Phil Hedges led 9-4 up early on before finally losing 14-22.

Penny Pither, Keith Jenkins, Max Dare and Mary Corfield lost on the last end 12-15.

Weymouth open with trip to champions Parley

WEYMOUTH, the only local side now left in Dorset Premier League Division One start the new season with the toughest match imaginable; a trip to champions Parley.

After being relieved following the withdrawal of Winton from last year's Premier League, the Seaside make the trip to Poole Park on May 3rd.

They then face a similarly testing challenge in their first home match the following week (May 10th) when they host Broadstone who finished fourth.

Dorchester begin life in Premier League Two with a difficult trip to Shroton, before hosting Blandford at The Rec.

Promoted Martinstown will travel to last year's champions Sherborne for their opening fixture, before entertaining Shroton at the picturesque Lower Ashton Farm.

The local derby with county town neighbours Dorchester takes place at The Rec on June 14th with the return on August 2nd.

The restructured Division Two should be interesting this year with five local teams involved, and there's a tasty clash on the opening day (May 3rd) when Beaminster entertain Cattistock.

Weymouth 2nd XI and Dorchester 2nd XI both start with home games against Ferndown Wayfarer 3rds and Portland RT respectively.

Bridport start life in Division Three against Christchurch 2nds before travelling to Kingston Lacy.

There's a clash of the Titans in Division Five with promoted Charlton Down who finished runner-up hosting last year's Division Six champions Chalke Valley. There was only seven points between the teams at the end which will make this an intriguing encounter.

Martinstown 2nd XI also have a tricky start when they entertain Broadstone 4ths who come down from Division Four.

Beaminster 2nds who finished rock bottom of the eight divisions last season face a tough start when they host Wimborne & Colehill 4th's in Division Six who drop down two leagues in the reshuffle. Symene who were relegated from Sunday's Division Three start with a home game against Broadstone 2nds (May 4th) before travelling to Portland Red Triangle 2nd's the following week.

Broadwindsor start their defence of the Reader Mid Wessex Division 1 League with a home game against last year's Division Two champions Bruton, before travelling to the other promoted side North Perrott.

Park named new Dorset captain

CHRIS Park has been appointed Dorset Cricket Club's new captain, succeeding Tom Hicks who stood down at the end of last season

Park is Dorset born and played for Kingston Lacey and Bournemouth before joining Northamptonshire in 2002, where he was awarded the Academy Players of the Season in his first year.

He was released in 2005 and has played for Dorset ever since, playing nearly 100 games in all competitions and scoring over 2,000 runs.

He was vice-captain to Hicks for four seasons between 2008-2011 and recently has returned to live in the county. He was the stand out candidate and was the unanimous choice of the committee. Park has asked all-rounder Jake Lintott to be his vice-captain, while Alan Willocks will remain as the 1st XI Coach, assisted by Julian Shackleton.

Hicks after seven very successful years as skipper where he led the side to the Western Divisional Championship and outright Minor Counties Champions in 2010, and a One Day Semi Final in 2012, will still make himself available to play and will be a valuable member of the squad next season.

Dorset will play Hampshire in a double-header T20 Blast on Thursday May 8th at Dean Park which will provide the visitors with valuable practice for all of their squad ahead of their domestic T20 campaign. Coupled with this is the fact that they are celebrating their 150th anniversary and Dean Park is where they won the County Championship for the second time back in 1973. Further details about the start times for the two matches and ticketing prices will be unveiled in due course.

In other news, the Minor Counties Cricket Association (MCCA)

have renamed their competitions to bring them in line with the Unicorns side that play in the First Class Domestic 50 over competition.

The Unicorns side is run by the MCCA and it seems a sensible idea to give the competitions fresh identity, they will now be named 'Unicorns Counties Championship' and 'Unicorns One Day Trophy'.

The Dorset 'A' side will now be known as the 'Dorset Leopards', the side is used as a vehicle to give young talented players and Dorset 1st squad members the opportunity to showcase their talents.

Players who perform well for this side make the selectors aware of who is knocking on the door for selection into the 1st XI.

The side will be managed and coached by Phil Calcott and Julian Shackleton. A captain for the side will be chosen during the winter training sessions.

Brittle Terras crushed by gleaming Glassboys

WEYMOUTH 0 STOURBRIDGE 5

Calor Premier – att: 492

STOURBRIDGE continued the hold they appear to have over Weymouth in recent games when once again they hit five goals past a beleaguered Terras defence; making it a massive 22 goals in four games with only one in reply.

Goals rained in again at the Bob Lucas Stadium with the hosts offering little in response.

Weymouth went into the game with confidence following their midweek game at Bashley which saw them leading 2-1 when the lights went out just before half-time.

However, they were soon brought back to earth when Stourbridge penetrated their defence inside five minutes.

Michael Walker tracked Tom Berwick down the left and managed to block him as he cut back along the byline, but the Glassboy was quickest to his feet and laid the ball back into Ben Billingham's path.

His shot was brilliantly palmed away by player-manager Jason Matthews but the ball ran to the unmarked Drew Canavan who lashed it home.

However the Terras weren't daunted and tried taking the game to the visitors. However they conceded a second on 16 minutes when Billingham set Canavan free down the right.

He beat Scott Walker before running on a driving in a 20 yard shot that struck Michael Walker and Adam Kelly before dropping into the path of Sean Geddes who neatly rounded Matthews to roll it into an empty net.

There was almost a third before the break but Leon Broadhurst struck the post from a corner, the result of a superb block by Jake Green from Kayelden Brown header.

It was virtually one-way traffic in the second-half as the Glassboys shut the Terras down, starving Stewart Yetton and Ben Joyce of any service, and it was no surprise when they scored a third on 54 minutes.

Billingham held off Michael Walker to feed the on-rushing Geddes who swept the ball just inside Matthews' left hand side.

Things got worse on 69 minutes when Billingham in trying to reach Kyle Haynes through ball was tugged back by the central defender who was red carded by referee Michael Webb.

Billingham added extra misery to the situation by driving the resultant free-kick low down to Matthews' left hand side of goal.

The scoring, and Weymouth's misery was complete four minutes from time, when substitute Jordan Fitzpatrick played a one-two with Billingham before smashing a low right foot 20 yard shot beyond Matthews right hand into the corner of the net.

Chicken Dave gets his reward

DAVE Drage has been rewarded for his work at Chickerell United when he was recognised at the recent Dorset FA's annual volunteer's awards evening held at Ashley Wood Golf Club.

Drage received the Special Achievement Award for his outstanding service as a volunteer following 17 years continuous support to 'The Chickens' where his hard work ethic and focus on bringing quality coaching to Chickerell has turned the club into one of the most well respected grassroots clubs in Dorset.

Previously he had spent 20 years coaching at youth level with Weymouth Cougars.

He is also constantly involved with fund raising for both the senior and youth teams, lending a hand at race nights, bingo calling and arranging sponsored walks.
